

MULTI-ENGINE TRAINING ENDORSEMENT

TEACH AND CONDUCT TRAINING FOR THE MULTI-ENGINE CLASS RATING

#TheSkylsCalling

EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE, BUILD YOUR EXPERIENCE

The Multi-Engine Training Endorsement is a popular pathway for Flight Instructors looking to gain more multi-engine experience. It allows them to expand on their own multi-engine knowledge, and build valuable flight hours whilst teaching the next generation of pilots.

The training follows the CASA syllabus. It covers theory, flight training and competency in delivering Multi-Engine Class Rating flight briefings and reviews.

MULTIPLE ENGINES, MULTIPLE OPTIONS

LTF offers the Multi-Engine Training Endorsement in either the modern Diamond DA42 aircraft with G1000 glass cockpit, or the more traditional Piper PA44 Seminole.

To be able to commence this course, you must first be at least a Grade 2 Flight Instructor, hold a Multi-Engine Class Rating, and have at least 50 hours' flight time in a multi-engine aircraft.

If you don't yet have your Flight Instructor Rating (FIR), chat to one of our flight training specialists about completing the course with us.

OUR GRADUATE: NICK HARRIS

"A Multi-Engine Training Endorsement allows Flight Instructors to teach students sequences for the Multi-Engine Class Rating course. It's a great way to build knowledge and increase your flying hours in a twin-engine aircraft. At LTF you can fly a modern aircraft like the Diamond DA42 or the more traditional Piper Seminole, as well as the AL42 simulator" – Nick Harris (Grade 1 Flight Instructor at Learn To Fly Melbourne)
